45 BODIES ARE FOUND IN MINE TO NOON TODAY

No Cause for Explosion Fixed Yet by Officials

66 STILL IN MINE

Rescuers Keep at Work Thinking Some May Have Barricaded Selves Deep in Ground

By Associated Press.

WHEELING, Apr. 29.—Rescuers in the ill-fated Benwood mine wrecked yesterday by an explosion had located forty-five bodies up to noon today. Sixty-six other bodies are believed in the mine. None of the officials of the mine are able to fix the cause for the explosion.

I. M. Scott, president of the Wheeling Steel Corporation, declared that while the mine was an old working, no evidence of gas had been found until two months ago. A small explosion occurred then, he said, but an airshaft was sunk immediately and work had progressed without difficulty for sixty days. Mr. Scott was unable to assign any cause for the explosion.

Only a faint hope was held out by officials of the mine rescue car for the other men in the mine at the time of the explosion. If any of them escaped being killed outright, and and had time to barricade themselves in rooms filled with fresh air some of the trapped miners may yet be found alive, they declared. Upon that possibility rescue crews worked in short shifts frantically but had not reached the scene of the explosion.

Several Boys Are Going to C. M. T. C. From Here

Several local boys have filed applications for the Citizens Military Training camp which will be held at Camp Knox in July though Lieutenant D. W. Senters says that he has several blanks yet for boys who wish to take a vacation at the expense of Uncle Sam.

Among the local boys who have signed applications for the camp are: Herbert F. Hobbs, Clarence Strange, Roy Taylor and Dewey Sullivan. Other boys who wish to go should see Lieutenant Senters.

The C. M. T. C. offers an ideal outdoor recreation for boys during the summer weeks. It furnishes military training to thousands of boys annually. All expenses are defrayed by the government.

W. B. Saylor's Successor Appointed Soon

Appointment of a federal prohibition officer to succeed the late W. B. Saylor in this district will not be made until after the hearing of the four deputies charged with participation in the shooting on the Virginia road several weeks ago, according to a communication of Sam Collins, state prohibition agent.

It is understood from local sources that the hearing of D. C. Sellers, Millard Overton, Leslie Bishop and R. L. Saylor will take place at London May 13 before Judge A. M. J. Cochran instead of at Middlesboro or Pineville as was previously hinted.

Bradner is Reelected Director of K. E. A.

J. W. Bradner, superintendent of the Middlesboro city schools, was reelected director of the Kentucky Educational Association at the meeting in Louisville from which he recently returned. Last year he was elected director to fill out an unexpired term of another man. The reelection makes the position on the educational board permanent for the ensuing two years term.

Such a position on the state educational board comes as an honor to Supt. Bradner and the town is fortunate in having a man at the head of its educational system that also takes a leading part in forming the public school policies of Kentucky.

Prof. H. H. Cherry, president of Western Kentucky Normal, was also elected to the board of directors. The enrollment at the institution reached 7,123.

GOV. M'CRAY FOUND GUILTY POSTAL FRAUD

Resignation of Indiana Executive Expected Momentarily

NIGHT IN JAIL

Heavy Fine or Prison Term May be Punishment—Sentence Will be Given Wednesday

Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS, Apr. 29. That Gov. Warren McCray, found guilty of using mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud in federal court here, soon would resign was the general belief here today, although Republican leaders, the governor's attorneys and the governor himself steadfastly refused to make any statement. The governor spent last night in jail and expected to remain there until Wednesday morning when he will be sentenced.

Unless McCray tenders his resignation as governor of Indiana he will continue in office until impeachment proceedings are brought against him in the general assembly. Early in the governor's financial difficulties when efforts were being made by party leaders to have him resign he stated he would get out if the charges against him were proven.

Whether an appeal would be taken of the case had not been decided definitely today. James W. Noel, the governor's personal attorney, when asked regarding an appeal, said he had nothing to say at this time.

The penalty provided by the statute may be a fine of not to exceed $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, within the discretion of the court.

ASPHALT FOR ALL STREETS BUT ONE

Block of Eighteenth to be Concrete—Exeter, 19th and 21st to be Resurfaced

All of the streets in the new improvement program will be paved with asphalt except a block of Eighteenth street, according to the present plans. This will be made of concrete. Most of the others will be made of asphalt on a concrete base.

Nineteenth and Twenty-first streets will be resurfaced with macadam base and asphalt top, according to announcements today and Exeter avenue will be treated in a like manner.

The block on Dorchester avenue between Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth streets will be left out of the building program, according to present plans, the property there not being considered a good risk for expensive improvements. The entire street, which has been scheduled for improvements, will probably be left until the last.

The deceased is survived by a wife and one daughter, Georgie Lee Griffith and a brother, E. E. Griffith. He had been an engineer on the L. and N. railway here for several years and has a large number of friends in this section.

By Associated Press.

CROWDS HONOR MURPHY

Tammany Leader Laid to Rest Yesterday

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Apr. 29.—One hundred thousand persons, high and low, rich and poor, yesterday paid their final tribute of respect to Charles F. Murphy for two decades chieftain of Tammany Hall. Not in many years has the Metropolis witnessed a funeral of such magnitude.

For hours there was a steady stream of men, women and children—the majority from the lower East Side—into the parlor where the body lay. Laborers, with lunch boxes under their arms, shop girls, silk-hatted dignitaries and women in costly gown knelt for a moment of silent prayer before the coffin.

More than 8,000 persons crowded the cathedral where Bishop John J. Dunn celebrated the impressive solemn high mass of requiem. Outside the edifice, 5,000 persons bowed their heads while the ceremonies were in progress.

TEN ARRESTED IN RAID AT LYNCH

Harlan Sheriff Leads Another Successful Party on Liquor Law Violators

HARLAN, Apr. 29.—One of the most successful raids in the history of Harlan county was staged Friday night when a posse composed of the sheriff and prohibition officers went to Lynch and destroyed about five thousand gallons of wine and beer, several gallons of whiskey, captured three stills and ten prisonres.

The raiding party left Harlan about 8 o'clock and drove through to Lynch, about thirty miles distance, over very bad road. The party was composed of Sheriff J. H. Blair, and Prohobition Officers Flannery, Green, Easley and Tuggle.

Following the raid, Sheriff Blair returned to Harlan, arriving here about noon. The remainder of the officers remained at Lynch to convey the prisoners away that afternoon.

Slim Men Now Organizing Baseball Team

Plans for the organization of a "Slim Men's" baseball team are now under way. Anthony Bisceglia, Frank Frazer, Jim Ginsburg and Harry Batts are among the ones who have expressed an interest in the proposed team. All slim men who wish to join the team are requested to call Mr. Bisceglia at the Service barber shop or Mr. Frazer at his home.

Qualifications for membership of the novel team are not very definite though the promoters say that men with no excess avoirdupois will be given performance. The team will, it is understood, meet the "Fat Men's" team on the diamond and possibly other local teams.

MISS MARX RESIGNS AS HEALTH NURSE

Will Leave After Four and One-half Years Here

ILL HEALTH CAUSE

Nurse and Social Service Worker Will Probably Take Over Her Duties—Has Remarkable Record

Resignation of Miss Wilhelmine Marx as Middlesboro Red Cross public health nurse was reluctantly accepted yesterday afternoon at an executive meeting of the local Red Cross chapter. Miss Marx has been here in that capacity since February, 1919, and during that time she has gained great note for the remarkable work she has done. Broken health was the reason for her resignation, the text of which follows:

"I hereby hand in my resignation to the Middlesboro chapter, American Red Cross, to take effect June 1, 1924. I regret very much that my health will no longer allow me to continue the work that I have done and so dearly loved in this community for the past four and one-half years. I wish to thank the members of the organization for their hearty cooperation and all courtesies and kindnesses shown me during that time, and my best and heartfelt wishes go to the organization for a bright an dsuccessful future."

Miss Marx will go from here to the Red Cross nurse's home at Long Island for several weeks' stay. She says she has not planned what she will do then. She will be here until about the middle of June winding up her business.

Has Done Great Work

Miss Marx has done in constructive pioneer health work in Middlesboro and Bell County a work which doctors throughout the nation regard unequaled in the whole country. She introduced vaccination, hygiene and general health work into the schools at a time when there had been nothing of the kind here. She was responsible for stamping out small pox which had terrorized this section for so long. It was in this work that she was given the Red Cross arm band as a protection from parents who would have used force to prevent their children's vaccination. She is the only public health nurse in the district who wears such an arm band. The civic clean ups, sanitary inspections and many other such movements are the work of Miss Marx who served as health officer her first two years here. The health exhibits, which won such general commendation, she considers as one of her biggest works.

Miss Marx has an unusual education. She was graduated from Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, prepared to be a teacher of languages and mathematics when she decided to be a nurse and entered the Cincinnati General Hospital School of nursing and health of the University of Cincinnati. On graduation from there she was supervisor of medicine, surgery and children there for eighteen months. She then took eighteen months training in public health and social service work at Hamilton, Ohio, and a special six weeks' course under Dr. Landus in Cincinnati. Miss Marx is registered in Ohio, Oklahoma and Kentucky.

Discussion of Successor

The executive board yesterday, considering her resignation, agreed that it would be necessary to get two persons to do her work, one as public health nurse only and the other work. Miss Margaret East, regional Red Cross director, advised this change, and Supt. Bradner and Mrs. F. D. Hart, Jr., were appointed to take the matter up with the Community Chest. Miss East gave a short talk praising Miss Marx's work here and outlining the plan she proposed.

The year's Red Cross report was read and adopted. Several matters of importance were discussed. A committee of G. H. Talbott, Mrs. J. R. Tinsley and Mrs. Hart was appointed to interview the city commissioners regarding use of rooms in the city hall for Red Cross offices, thus saving the office rental. G. H. Talbott and C. G. Smyth were appointed to draft the budget for the coming year.

It was announced that there would be no baby clinic or health exhibit this year.

Those present at the meeting yesterday were: W. S. Anderson, president; J. W. Bradner, vice-president; Mrs. Warren P. Rash, secretary; G. H. Talbott, C. G. Smyth, Mrs. F. D. Hart, Jr., Mrs. J. R. Tinsley, Mrs. H. C. Williams and Miss East.

POOR SPELLER LANDS IN PEN

$2,500 Demanded by Illinois Man—Leavenworth Final

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Apr. 29.—A test in spelling ordinary words played a prominent part in bringing about the conviction in federal court here of Samuel L. Sheets, of Paris, Ill., on a charge of sending threatening letters through the mails. As as result Sheets will have to spend two years in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kansas.

On January 31, last, J. P. Sparks, a road contractor of Kirkwood, a suburb of this city ,and former employer of Sheets, received a letter in which the threat was made that "assid" would be thrown in Mr. Sparks' "fase" and that Sparks' little daughter would be injured. To emphasize his demand for $2,500 the writer stated he "ment" business and left the inference that someone of the Sparks family would "disapeer," if the demand were not complied with.

According to the testimony of a post office inspector, Sheets was put to a test in spelling and mispelled the words in the same way in which they were written in the letter. The spelling "papers" were also submitted as evidence. Sheets denied that he had written the letter.

Party Leaders Mention Judge Chas. Kerr and Judge C. H. Moorman

LOUISVILLE, Apr. 29.—Judge Flem D. Sampson, of Barbourville, who has been mentioned prominently in connection with the appointment to fill the vacancy on the United States Circuit Court of Appeals bench at Cincinnati, is to meet stout opposition, it was said in political circles here.

Opposition has developed in high quarters, it is said, and party leaders are now casting about for another Kentuckian who measures up to the qualifications and against whom certain political influences now at work in Washington would not be pitted.

Judge Charles Kerr, of Lexington, and Judge Charles H. Moorman, of Louisville, are said to be under consideration.

HIGHER LIVING COST IN EUROPEAN STATES

Austria, Belgium, France and Others Report Upward Trend of Prices

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Apr. 29.—Increases in the cost of living have been noted recently in Austria, Belgium, France, Hungary, India, Luxembourg, Norway, Poland, Russia and Switzerland. Such is the announcement made by the International Labor Office, which bases its conclusion on statistics available for the last months of 1923.

For the United States, South Africa, Canada, Great Britain and Sweden the figures for December, 1923, show almost no change as compared with the previous month, which a decrease in the cost of living was reflected by the index numbers for Finland and Italy.

In Germany the course of prices has been more normal since the middle of December. Not only have prices been stable, but retail prices are again following normally the movement of wholesale prices.

Mrs. Jake Hamon Summoned But is Dismissed Without Being Questioned Any

Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Mrs. Jake L. Hamon, widow of the Oklahoma oil man and Republican politician whose name has been linked inancing in 1920, had a fleeting day in court today before the senate oil committee. She was not asked a single with unusual stories about political fiquestion and was excused after a quarter of an hour of waiting on the witness stand while the committee members wrangled and finally disagreed as to who was responsible for summoning her.

Meanwhile Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, was witness before the District of Columbia grand jury considering criminal charges growing out of the senate oil inquiry. It was at Daniels' request that congress enacted the law placing oil reserves under the sole jurisdiction of the navy secretary which ,it is argued, was made invalid later by an executive order transferring control to the department of interior.

Charge Refuted by Executive of Favortism to Ford

DECIDE ON MERITS

President Says He Stands for Fair Hearing of Proposition as Outlined in December Message

WASHINGTON, Apr. 29.—Categorical denial was made by President Coolidge in a statement last night that he was "trying to deliver Muscle Shoals to Mr. Ford or to any one else."

The President in his statement said he did not think Mr. Ford's favor was for sale, and that the question of disposition of Muscle Shoals ought to be decided on its merits.

The President's statement said:

My position on Muscle Shoals is fully stated in my message to the congress delivered December 6, where I said:

"The government is undertaking to develop a great water power project known as Muscle Shoals, on which it has expended many million dollars. The work is still going on. Subject to the right to retake in time of war, I recommend that this property with a location for auxiliary steam plant and rights of way be sold. This would end the present burden of expense and should return to the treasury the largest price possible to secure.

Fertilizer Needed

"While the price is an important element, there is another consideration even more compelling. The agriculture of the nation needs a greater supply and lower cost of fertilizer. This is now imported in large quantities. The best information I can secure indicates that present methods of power production would not be able profitably to meet the price at which these imports can be sold. To obtain a supply from this water power would require long and costly experimentation to perfect a process for cheap production. Otherwise our purpose would fail completely. It seems desirable therefore in order to protect and promote the public welfare to have adequate covenants that such experimentation be made and carried on to success. The great advantage of low-priced nitrates must be secured for the direct benefit of the farmers and the indirect benefit of the people in time of peace and of the government in time of war. If this main object be accomplished the amount of money received for the property is not a primary or major consideration.

"Such a solution will involve complicated negotiations and there is no authority for that purpose. I, therefore, recommend that the congress appoint a small joint committee to consider offers, conduct negotiations and report definite recommendations."

From the position of this message I have never departed. I have never said I was trying to deliver Muscle Shoals to Mr. Ford or to any one else. I do not think his favor is for sale. I wanted him to have his proposal fairly considered just as I wanted any other proposals fairly considered. My mind was made up when Mr. Ford called on me on December 8, and at that time my message was already written, printed and had been sent to the press for five days. My message went out November 28, five days before Mr. Ford came to see me. I expected there would be other bids and wanted all of them considered on their merits.

This question ought to be decided on its merits. I have no other method of dealing with it. The congress should have none.

JACKSON MORRIS OPPOSES ROBSION

Jackson Morris of Somerset, adjutant general under the Morrow administration, former Pineville city attorney, state representative and assistant secretary of state, announced recently that he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Eleventh District

In doing this Morris made a statement which drew an immediate denial from Congressman John W Robsion and started the Eleventh District congressional fight off with plenty of animation Morris was quoted as having said that Congressman Robsion agreed two years ago that he would not run for congress this year

Mr Robsion gave his version of what actually happened as follows

"I understand Mr Morris has announced himself a candidate for congress and in so doing has given out the statement that I promised two years ago that I would not run in 1924 I wish to say that I never made any such statement and I will now give the facts about this matter Mr Morris did come to Washington two years ago and in the presence of Senator Richard P Ernst he asked me to agree not to run for Congress again

"In the presence of Senator Ernst, I refused to make such a promise and said that I would not think of doing such a thing Morris says he does not expect to have any opposition for the nomination I am here to tell him he will have a whole lot of opposition Every county in the district has indorsed me and so has the district convention

Senator Ernst in Washington took sides with Representative Robsion in the controversy as to whether or not Robsion promised two years ago that he would not be a candidate this year Senator Ernst said that Congressman Robsion's statement, referring to the meeting in his office, was accurate in every way

Bell county people will watch this race with interest, though the general consensus of opinion here is that of absolute satisfaction with the splendid work which Congressman J M Robsion has done For that reason they see no reason for changing at a time when Mr Robsion is becoming more and more recognized in Congress and when he is doing so much for the welfare of this section

"IMMORAL CONDUCT"

Dr Eddie I Hewson, a Buffalo dentist is fighting to prevent the State Board of Dental Examiners from executing their recommendation that his state license be revoked and his registration cancelled

The heinous crime charged against this man is that he advertised that he would crown a tooth for $6, do bridge work for $6 per tooth and a rubber plate for $10

The Board or Dental Examiner went on record with the opinion that advertising fixed price constituted unprofessional conduct It was not denied that Dr Hewson adhered to his advertised prices Dr Hewson's conduct was called "immoral"

The matter is now before the Regents of the University of the State of New York

The stuffy snobbism of professional institutions sometimes becomes oppressive obdurance Dr Hewson whoever and whatever he may be if he really sold his six dollar teeth as promised in his advertisements, should carry his cause to the last court and demonstrate that there is no constitutional provision on upholding a mockish professionalism which forbids a dentist to name in the public prints a price for his work

Rather than less advertising honest dentistry needs more advertising not only possibly fixing prices, but advising the public as to the care of teeth the deadly dangers of neglect the false economy in postponing extraction and removing from the public mind an entirely false and misleading preconception that dentistry is too expensive for the average purse and entail unendurable pain

It only takes one to start a fight and that is always the other one

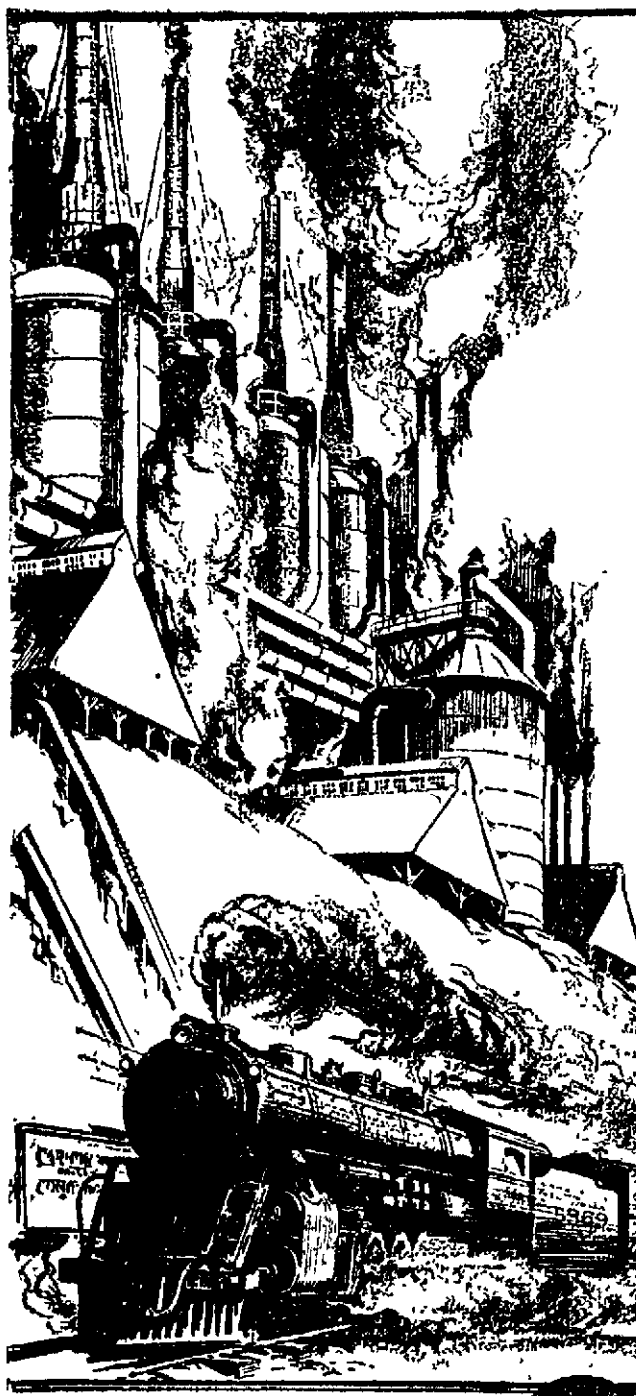
SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM



Our Day's Work

THE Southern Railway System is producing more than 100,000 ton-miles of freight transportation in the five minutes you spend reading this advertisement.

A ton-mile, the yardstick of freight service, is a ton moved one mile. For example, hauling 100,000 tons a mile equals a hundred thousand ton-miles.

It is a big day's work that an 8,300 mile railway system, with 60,000 employees, does every twenty-four hours. Our average daily performance in 1923 shows these results:

Trains operated	1,250
Distance run by trains	120,000 miles
Passengers carried	50,000
Freight loaded on our lines and received from other railroads	8,000 carloads
Freight movement	32,000,000 ton-miles
Coal burned by locomotives	14,000 tons
Wages paid	$220,000
Materials and supplies purchased	$135,000
Taxes paid	$ 26,000

If you will multiply any of these items by 365 the result will be a year's performance on the Southern Railway System.

The prosperity of millions of people in the twelve states served by the Southern depends on the faithful and efficient performance of our day's work.

Old Ships At Anchor
(By W. A. Brewer, Jr.)

Old ships at anchor ask no more of Life;
They've tasted it to full and drunk the dregs;
They have despoiled Life of its treasures; now
Poor, empty Life turns back to them and begs.

Life seeks a shame of memories they won,
Asks for a tot of tempests they outrode,
Pleads for a corner of their course well-run,
A loan of service that has marked their road.

Life calls them to remember all it gave—
Keel, launching, cargoes, crews, and ports to
The old ships shudder to a passing wave—
Their only answer is an anchor's creak.

All they recall is seas their strong keels trod —
Headlights outwitted, tracking down the bay—
Old ships at anchor only talk to God,
And Life goes empty-handed on its way.

FABLES ON HEALTH

Clothing—Mr. Mann hadn't thought of that in connection with the Mann first born.

He had watched Mrs. Mann and some of the neighbors sewing away, but now came the time to put the newly made apparel on the baby and he marveled at the variety and the amount.

During the first three or four weeks an abdominal band, made of knitted or light woolen, is usually used, only to be discarded thereafter. If the baby is weak, this band is retained.

First diapers generally are made of cheesecloth and cotton generally is used thereafter. Light wool and cotton are used in the undershirt. It should be so made that it will slip on and off easily. Different weights for varying temperatures are used in making petticoats.

Outer clothing is generally very simple and of white cotton goods. For purposes of convenience garments are made with a drawstring.

For outdoor wear a good coat, cap or hood is used. The hood should be of wool in cold weather and lighter material in summer.

Ten in Graduating Class—P. V. H. S. Now First Grade School Accredited in State of Tennessee

POWELL VALLEY, Apr. 29.—Commencement holds the center of attraction for Powell's Valley High School students and patrons this week. This began with the high school play Saturday night and will conclude with the graduation exercises Thursday night.

The play Saturday night was a sparkling comedy in three acts entitled "Aaron Boggs, Freshman." It was directed by Miss Jo Lee Bruce and was greatly enjoyed by the crowds who came out to see it. The plot was a very interesting one and the various parts were well-executed.

Sunday Dr. O. E. Sams, president of Carson and Newman College at Jefferson, delivered the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class, a service which, because of Dr. Sams' reputation for deep thinking, promised to be a wonderful occasion.

The graduating class of the grammar grade will entertain Wednesday night with a program of recitations, readings, drills and playets, interspersed with excellent music. Fifteen pupils, as follows, will be promoted to the high school department: Everett Sharp, Clayton Sharp, Milt Russell, Kores Welch, Sarah Cory, Tella Bolinger, Etter Hensley, Anne Hill, Leona Williams, Hazel Davis, Lawrence Russell, Estil Watson, Mabel McCray, Etta Brewer and David Yoakum.

Dr. R. O. Matthews, president of Lincoln Memorial University, will deliver the literary address to the high school graduating class Thursday night. Dr. Matthews is one of the outstanding educators of the south and is especially talented as a lecturer, so a large assembly is expected for this occasion. The high school graduates are: Ruby Hall, Nannie Addington, Elizabeth Farris, Pearl Brewer, Dallas Ausmus, Bettie Vanhebber, Mary Lee Davis, Lillian Hensley, William Ausmus and Homer Moyers. Not only will these pupils receive the high school diplomas but those taking the one unit course in education will receive state certificates to teach in the public schools.

This school was recently visited by the state high school inspector and, after a thorough inspection, given first class rating. This reflects much credit to the county superintendent, Prof. J. W. Baldwin, the board of education and the faculty who, with the patrons, have worked so hard to build the school up. W. L. Sharp deserves much credit for his zealous work in behalf of the school, too.

Oil in considerable quantities recently has been discovered near Mesopotamia.

The cost of national defense for the next fiscal year is placed at $518,531,238.

My China Doll, Here Last Night, Charming Oriental Play

Oriental settings, tuneful melodies and a liberal dash of Oriental color made "My China Doll" a success at the Manring theatre last night. Barbara Bronell, as "Peach Blossom," made a decided hit in the leadling role of the play. Her dancing, singing and clever adaptation to the role won Middlesboro as they did last year in "Listen to Me." The success of the other characters, with the exception of Bessie Delmore who played the role of comedienne, was due mainly to their make-up and costumes.

The greater part of the play was the vision of Peach Blossom during an opium smoke. These were make-belief scenes in the Land of Storybooks, the Land of Melody and the Land of Flowers. Each of these were gorgeous in the extreme and the lines and music were in perfect harmony with the general setting.

The play was well received through the two long acts. Some of the dancing and musical acts, particularly those of Miss Bronell, received applause which usually insures an encore. While the building was not crowded, there were few vacant seats.

The Better Way To Buy a Motor Car

Most persons dislike mechanical details. But how a motor car is engineered and built, and what it is built of, are both extremely important.

That is why automobile buyers today are discounting glib selling talk and demanding assurance that a car will stand up and give low-cost service.

There is only one way you can get such assurance. You must see for yourself how it is engineered and built—and of what it is built.

The Hupmobile Parts Display gives you the Hupmobile story at a glance. It is interesting—and enlightening. You should by all means see it. Come in soon.

Hupmobile

Brake and clutch pedals are good examples of the safety built into the Hupmobile. They are drop-forged, double heat-treated steel, as are also the hand-brake and gear-shift levers, brake-rod clevises and toggles—much stronger and safer than the less costly low carbon steel or malleable castings which are often used at these points. For example, in a recent test, a cast brake pedal broke under 340 pounds pressure, while it required 570 pounds to break a Hupmobile drop-forged pedal.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

DAILY MENU FOR THE STOUT AND THIN

Lose Weight

Four tablespoons apple sauce, 1 thin crisp slice broiled bacon, 1 cup fruit salad, 1 cup lamb en casserole, 1-2 cup shredded cabbage, 2 tablespoons rhubarb tapioca pudding, 2 pieces crisp unbuttered whole wheat toast, 2 pieces gluten bread, 1 gluten roll, 1 pint skimmed milk.

Total calories, 1056. Protein, 221; fat, 313; carbohydrate, 522. Iron, .0189 gram.

Lamb en Casserole

Three pounds neck of lamb, 3 carrots, 4 onions, 2 cups canned tomato, 2 tablespoons drippings, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-8 teaspoon celery pepper.

Wipe meat and remove any thin papery skin covering from the meat. Cut meat in inch and one-half cubes. Melt drippings in frying pan, add meat and sear on all sides. Sift over flour and stir until flour, meat and fat are perfectly blended. Add water, bring to the boiling point stirring constantly and let boil two minutes. Turn into casserole, add carrots, scraped and sliced, onions peeled and sliced and tomatoes and seasoning. Cook in a slow oven for about two hours. This is just as good cooked in an iron stewing kettle on top of the stove but of course can't be served from oven to table, so to speak, as when cooked in the casserole. This will serve six persons.

Total calories, 3628. Protein, 10.2; fat, 2339; carbohydrate, 257. Iron, .0311 gram.

Gain Weight

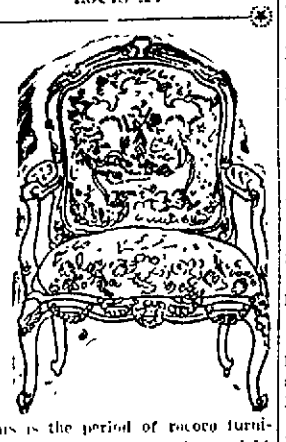
Four tablespoons apple sauce, 2 tablespoons creamed potatoes, 2 slices broiled bacon, 1 fried egg, 1 cup cream of spinach soup, 1 cup fruit salad with 4 tablespoons whipped cream dressing, 1 cup lamb en casserole, 4 tablespoons steamed rice, 1 cup shredded cabbage with 1 tablespoon chopped nuts and 2 tablespoons French dressing, 4 tablespoons rhubarb tapioca pudding with 2 tablespoons whipped cream, 2 bran muffins with raisins, 2 slices whole wheat bread, 1 bran roll, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 pint whole milk, 4 tablespoons chocolate bread pudding with 1 tablespoon hard sauce.

Total calories, 3892. Protein, 394; fat, 1746; carbohydrate, 1752. Iron, .019 gram.

The egg is fried carefully in the bacon fat. Have the fat hot, but not smoking. Drop the egg into the fat and reduce the heat. Cover and cook slowly from three to five minutes. An egg fried this way is not tough and leathery, but tender and firm and most appetizing. The fat adhering to it adds a few calories.

Lamb is said to contain less of the so-called "purins" so inimical to gout and rheumatism than the other meats. It is easy to digest and deserves a prominent place on the spring menu.

PERIOD FURNITURE
LOUIS XV



This is the period of rococo furniture, in which not a single straight line could be seen. Broken graceful curves, shell ornaments, wreaths flowers, carvings and decorative tapestries predominated. Ornamentation was almost extreme. Lacquer was used, carvings were gilt and plain surfaces avoided. The upholstered chair shown here is a good example.
